X. NUMBER OF CANDIDATES TO BE CALLED FOR WRITTEN TEST

Results of the PST and PET will be locally displayed at the end of each day of Test.

However, candidates shall have no claim or right to appear in the Written Test merely on the ground that they secured the minimum qualifying standards in the PST and

PET. After completion of the PST and PET for all the candidates, merit lists for each category as mentioned will be prepared on the basis of the total marks scored on PET as per vacancies shown at Para I above. Candidates will be called for the Written Test in order of merit at the rate of 5 (five) times the number of posts allotted in respect of each category. If the total number of qualifying candidates turns out to be less than 5 times the number of posts, all qualifying candidates but no other will be called for the Written Test. If there are candidates scoring the same marks in PET as the last candidate selected for the written test by the 5 times formula in a particular case, the candidates scoring the same marks will also be called for the written examination, and therefore the number may exceed the 5 times to that extent for that particular case and category only.

XI. WRITTEN TEST:

a) Written test will consist of 100 multiple choice type questions to be answered on an OMR answer sheet. For each correct answer the candidate will get half mark. Total marks for the Written Test will be 50. There will be no negative marking.

b) The subjects to be covered will be as follows:-

- i. Elementary Arithmetic
- ii. General English
- iii. Logical reasoning/Mental ability
- iv. Assam's History, Geography, Polity, Economy
